

Name	Organization	Agenda Item	Position
Nicholette Ito	Waimanalo Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Glendaile S. Llamelo	Kapolei High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Michelle Fujie	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Cortney	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student	Comment

		instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Charles Manning	Pahoa High & Intermediate School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
John Bethancourt	Public	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Ember Freitas	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Oppose/Comment
Charles Gill	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written,	Comment

		publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Alder Olive	Kaelepulu Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Sarah Whitehurst	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Elissa Gathman	Kahakai Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Stacie Nakamura	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Acacia Awai	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools;	Comment

		III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Alison Adams	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Diana Koko	Makakilo Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Richard Strange	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kate Werner	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Elena & Chuck Hill	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Darselle Cossey	WES	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021	Comment

		school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Marjana Helton	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Oppose/Comment
Michelle Fujie	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kim Ratcliff	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Ann Keeler	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Patricia Sorda	Moanalua High School	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the	Comment

		revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Jessica Kato	Campbell Kapolei Complex Area	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kristina Anderson	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Emi Orikasa	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Mara Saltzman	Volcano School of Arts & Sciences	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Sienna Makarewicz	Kapaa Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Skye Ikedia-Arce	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying	Comment

		Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Rachel Silverman	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Derek Bishop	Paauilo Elementary and Intermediate School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Rachel Silverman	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kileigh Sanchez	Waianae Intermediate School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Marybeth Baldwin	Hawaii Technology Academy	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Greta Gallardo	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Heather Wolfenbarger	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning	Comment

		of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Alicia Jacobson	Haiku Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Allan Cunanan	Public	N/A	Comment
Rhonda Comet	Lahaina Intermediate School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jon Burnham	Lokelani Intermediate School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Antonio Andres-Lopez	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Shelly K. Cummings-Kaniho	Kapolei Middle School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional	Support/Comment development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health

Serena Nishihara	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kevy B.	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Genna Javier	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Oppose/Comment
L. Low	Kaimuki High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Donna Hallock	Na'alehu Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
L.K.	Public	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of	Comment

		Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
John Johnson	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Oppose/Comment
Libby Lenzer	Kainalu Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Julia Weldon	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Oppose/Comment

Rachel Denessen	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Christopher Ho	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Support/Comment
Aoi Shinagawa	Iroquois Point Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing	Support/Comment

		additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Amy Archibeque	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jolie Wanger	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Support/Comment
Joanna Lee	Washington Middle School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying	Comment

		Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Abigail Hobbs	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Support/Comment
Nichole Tomas	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Maria Rossman	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Alyse Bright	Iroquois Point Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment

Holly Takahashi Miskella	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Robyn Kailiponi	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jennifer Beruan	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Bobbie Wilson	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kristina Lum	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Robyn Kailiponi	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Lauren Stein	Waipahu Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools;	Support/Comment

		III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Erin Kowalick	Kihei Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar;	Comment
Axel Beers	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Katie Wright Pere	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Bonnie Colle	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021	Comment

		school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Dawn Shirota	King Kekaulike High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jennifer Moku	Ala Wai Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Caroline Freudig	HSTA Kaua'i Chapter	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Amanda Haley	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Elizabeth M. Benson	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Nohea Goo	Dole Middle School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment

Kaleb Loo	Waimea Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Blaine Stuart	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kekoa Bay	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar	Oppose/Comment
Kaia Loo	Waimea Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Dawn Marquez	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Corey Horwitz	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment

Amanda Kaahanui	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar	Support/Comment
Erin Kowalick	Kihei Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Katie Hearl	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Michael Fricano II	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021	Comment

		school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Vanessa Humphreys	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Shirley Yamauchi	Kapolei Middle	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Susan Shire	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Richard Strange	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Cid Chun	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kau'i Samson-Chong	Holomua Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment

Amy Kennett	King Kamehameha II School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Vanessa Humphreys	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Margaret Peterson	Kihei Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Pamela Tipton	Kaua'i District	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Katie Jagger	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Paul Nielsen	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kristina Hinson	Public	III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar	Oppose/Comment

Eunice Werner	Kailua Intermediate	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jessica Lee Loy	Holualoa Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Nicole McElfresh	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Renee Dieperink	Enchanted Lake Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Mary Shire	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing	Comment

		additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Will Espero	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Anjanette Naganuma	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Janice Avellana	Hahaione Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Catherine Baldaino	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Mary Hackney	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Trisha Gushikuma	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days	Oppose/Comment

		for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Margaret Peterson	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Tatiana Chauvet-Martin	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Hana Mauldin	Mountain View Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Joshua Klaassen	Ewa Makai Middle School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written,	Support/Comment

		publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Diana Wan	Washington Middle School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Anna Crawford	King Kekaulike High	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
S. Ishihara	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Cheryl Kuroiwa	C.W. Nimitz Elem. School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Nicole Vise	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Robert Underwood	Kaunakakai Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Cindy Conda	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning	Comment

		of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Megan Walsh	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Anna Yamauchi	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Sonya Porcher	Konawaena Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Holly Uehara	Public	N/A	Comment
NM	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Hanalei Conda	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Erin Mickelsen	Waihee School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student	Comment

		instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Darlene Dunston	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Sarah Pautzke	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Andee Lau	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Justin R. Bergonio	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Karly Kanehiro	James Campbell High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning	Comment

		of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Eleanor Stineman	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Cheyenne Velez	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Joanna Kameoka	Public	III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar	Oppose
Lauren Igawa	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Maile	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Mari Souza	Waikoloa Middle School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Sharie Ono	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days	Comment

		for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Lance Askildson	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Corey Rosenlee; Randy Perreira; Liz Ho	Hawaii State Teachers Association; Hawaii Government Employees Association; United Public Workers	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Support/Comment
Lauren H. Stuart	Hilo Medical Center	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Spring Lee	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying	Oppose

		Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Jonathon Medeiros	Kauai High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Support/Comment
Phaedra Robinson, Ph.D.	Mokapu Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Alexandria Suthard	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Joseph Menor Jr.	Moanalua High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment

Brooke Nasser	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Justin Hughey	King Kamehameha III Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Support/Comment
Jason Billings	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Keola Gilbert	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kimberly Lauzon	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021	Comment

		school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Dr. Steven A. Baker	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Patsy Pitts	Mongoose Farm Maui	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Darlene Dunston	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Peter Choy	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days	Comment

		for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Nelson Chang	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Lauren Appelbaum	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kira Knight	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kathryn Takakuwa	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written,	Support/Oppose/ Comment

		publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Joann Connolly	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Cassie Favreau-Chung	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Leisa Weaver	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Christopher Howard	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Rebecca Villegas	Hawai'i County Council, District 7	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jaclyn Wills	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Debra Yamakawa	Nanakuli High and Intermediate School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning	Support/Comment

		of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Dennis Takeshita	Wheeler Middle School	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Matthew Calica	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Liz Benson	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment

Ira H. Yamagata	Innovations Public Charter School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Robyn Brickland	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Dr. Masha D. Akau Wellein	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Akemi Faria	Kaumana Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Rosalyn Concepcion	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Oppose/Comment
Anne Alves	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021	Comment

		school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Maria Falavinha	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
David Miyashiro	HawaiiKidsCAN	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the	Support/Oppose/Comment

		revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Mady West	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Richard Nakatsu, Ed.D	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Brianne Clark	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Sarah Waite	Royal School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kris Coffield	Democratic Party of Hawai'i Education Caucus	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Ikaika Plunkett	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying	Comment

		Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Carnation Castillo	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Nicole Heinlein	Iao Intermediate School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Patricia Blair	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Linda Jones	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Adriane Aarona	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Ellery Galanto	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Linda Jones	Lāna'i High and Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning	Comment

		of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Alice Kimura	Puu Kukui Elementary	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Cheryl Caffrey	Mililani 'Ike Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Amy Harpstrite	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment

Ann C. Pecpec	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar	Support/Oppose/ Comment
Kristie Masatsugu	Iliahi Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Keith Yamaguchi	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Flora Green	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Shino Hee	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student	Support/Comment

		instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Scott McCoy	Maunawili Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Judith Dahl	Mountain View Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Liz Laliberte	Hilo High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Maria Rossman	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Rexann Dubiel Shanahan	Sunset Beach Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jenny Nishida	Public	III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar	Oppose

Karen Troester	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Oppose/Comment
Shannon Ankney	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jeff Pollack	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Lynn Otaguro	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3)	Comment

		mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Laura Fukumoto	Aliamanu Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Christine Kauahikaua	Hui Makua o Pū'ōhala	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Brandon Cha	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the	Support/Comment

		Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Shelby Loo	Waimea Middle School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Mike Landes	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Katie Robinson	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Lester Rivera	Keonepoko Elementary School	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Support/Comment

Keith and Patricia Ishihara	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Oppose/Comment
Bertha Alcaraz	Keaau Elementary	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Britney Carey	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii	Support/Comment

		Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Lauralee Baoy	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Lani Powers	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Krislyn Cha	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Dana Lee	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the	Oppose/Comment

		Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Deborah V. Anderson	Waiakea Intermediate	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
David Negaard	Baldwin High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3)	Comment

		mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Kawika Freitas	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Keiko Gonzalez	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar	Oppose/Comment
Gene	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Gwen	Public	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Thomas Davis	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying	Comment

		Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Ellee	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Holly Lee	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Gerald Kimura	Public	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Oppose/Comment
Erica DiCosmo	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Alexa Van Horn	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student	Oppose/Comment

		instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Liz Benson	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Mr. and Mrs. John McComas	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Anonymous	Leeward School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Support/Comment
Lara Bollinger	Together For Our Keiki	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jennifer Ueno	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days	Comment

		for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar
Sun Kim	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Raechelle Villanueva	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kelly Gorniak	Wai'alaie Elementary PCS	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support
Ken Farm	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Timothy Shim	Pōmaika'i Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Shahinaz Nassar	Wailuku Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days	Comment

		for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Jennifer Hiro	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Sharon Muraco	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Nancy Brown	Public	III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar	Oppose/Comment
Betty Tamayo	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kristin A.	Kapolei Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying	Comment

		Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Ashley Olson	Lahainaluna High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Su Lun Novikoff	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Sue	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Michael Allgaier	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Teresita G. Bernales	IVLP	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Nancy Halley	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Adrienne Hale	Holualoa Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning	Comment

		of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Kathryn Sherwood	Kamali'i Elementary School	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health ;	Oppose/Comment
Paula Adams; Jennifer Masutoni	Hawai'i Afterschool Alliance	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Dianne	Public	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school	Comment

		campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Jennifer Lum	Hawaii for a Safe Return to School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Kekoa Michael Bay	Pearl City High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Scott Muromoto	Ma'ema'e Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Oppose/Comment
Janice Heidt	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Travis Masuda	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying	Comment

		Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Heather Gostage	James Campbell High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jenifer Tsuji	Keonepoko Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Mireille Ellsworth	Waiakea High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Support/Comment

Caryn Fukuda	Mililani High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Amanda Nelson	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Sally Meditz	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar	Comment
Katherine Alarcio	Pearl City Elementary School	N/A	Comment
Leanne Dunn	Makawao Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Luke McKenney	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Melissa Spectre	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning	Comment

		of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Sarah Ferguson	Wai'alaie Public Charter School	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Support
Anonymous	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support
K. Harada	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Denise Mazurik	Public	N/A	Comment
W. Farm	Wailuku Elementary	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Cheri Nakamura	Hui for Excellence in Education	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written,	Support/Comment

		publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Suzanne Braun	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Denise O'Shea	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Darnell Vierra	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Amy Billings	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jeffrey Farah	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Tiffany Schnittger	Holomua Elementary School	N/A	Comment
Elizabeth Kaneshiro	Waipahu Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jill Jacobs	Kealakehe Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training	Support/Comment

		and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Mario Oka	Radford High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Catherine M. Davis	Kamali'i Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying	Comment

		Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Maki Morinoue	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kiele Gonzalez	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Sara Ricer	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jennifer Corpion	Kahuku High and Intermediate School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Anonymous	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment

Jenny Nishida	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Senate President Ronald D. Kouchi; House Representative James Kunane Tokioka	Hawai'i State Legislature	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Cynthia Rothdeutsch	Kamali'i Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Leilani Sugue	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Amy Ancheta	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Support/Comment
Molly	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021	Comment

		school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Angela Sagisi	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Renee K. Adams	Samuel Enoka Kalama Intermediate	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Kevin Morita	Kapolei Middle School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kalelani Ogata	Lincoln Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days	Comment

		for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Chris Nepl	Jefferson El	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Anjelica Ayers	Queen Ka'ahumanu Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Amy Var	Waiakea Intermediate School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Bart Patitucci	Baldwin High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Amber Corrales	Kohala High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Joyce Miyamoto	H.P. Baldwin High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Oppose/Comment
Steve Bortle	James Campbell High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training	Comment and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools

Salena Lee	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Oppose/Comment
Colleen Miyose-Wallis	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Joy Gerry	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jina Thompson	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Emily Brou	Waipahu Intermediate School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Tracy Penhall	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment

Keoni Wilhelm	Kamehameha Schools Faculty Association Executive Board	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Support
Winston Y. Sakurai	HASSA	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Deanna J.K. Kackley	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Burke Burnett	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing	Comment

		additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health
Piper Seldon	Waiakea High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Scott Tamura; Rachelle Matsumura; Hanna Loyola; Rory Souza; Alan Brown; Kris Kosa-Correia; Diane Spencer; Michelle Barber; Tammy Yoshimura-Furrer; Glenn Gray; Jim Denight; Teddy Burgess; Makala Paakaula; Amy Stafford	Honokaa-Kohala-Kealakehe-Kona Complex Area; West Hawaii Complex Area; Waimea Elementary; Honokaa High and Intermediate; Kohala Elementary; Honoka'a Elementary; Kohala Middle School; Waikoloa Elementary and Middle School; Konawaena Elementary; Paauilo Elementary and Intermediate; Ho'okena Elementary; Kealakehe High; Kahakai E.S.; Konawaena Middle School; Po'okumu, Ke Kula 'O 'Ehunuikaimalino; Kohala High School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment

Osa Tui	McKinley High School; HSTA	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Angela T. Hoppe-Cruz	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Desi McKenzie	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
M. Moss	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Dianne	Public	III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Lilia Doubleday	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment

Rebecca Hadley-Schlosser	Nanaikapono Elementary School	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar; III.C. Board Action on Board expectations regarding: (1) focusing additional training and professional development days included in the revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar on health, safety, and distance learning; (2) starting student instruction for the 2020-2021 school year in distance learning mode; (3) mandating masks on public school campuses; and (4) detailed, written, publicly posted guidance from the Department of Health	Comment
Representative Amy Perruso	Hawaii State House District 46	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Senator Kaiali'i Kahele	Senate District 1 – Hilo	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Valerie Harmon	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jacob Cassens	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021	Comment

		school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Jim Shon	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Joanne H. Kealoha	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Rhonda Comet	Lahaina Intermediate	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kiele Muraco	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Dr. Karen Latham	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools; III.B. Board Action on general waiver to allow reduction of the 180 day school year and 1,080 student instructional hours pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 302A-251, consistent with revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar	Oppose/Comment
Steven Baker	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021	Comment

		school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools
Skippy Espinda	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Kristin Matsuda	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Malia Marquez	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Ellery Galanto	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Anonymous	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Julie L.	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment

Anonymous	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jo Ann Inouye	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Carrie Mak-Chang	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Jeanne Omaye	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment
Carrie Shoda-Sutherland	Public	III.A. Board Action on revisions to the Department of Education's 2020-2021 school calendar: additional training and professional development days for teachers and staff at the beginning of the school year and delaying Students' First Day to ensure health and safety preparedness for schools	Comment